

Jail Rooster Sounds Alarm As Seven Men Cut Way Out of Jail

Hoboes Using Knife as Hack Saw Make Escape From City Prison, Using Bad Blankets—Jailer Finds Dangling Rope and Instrument of Delivery—Men Had Short Terms—Notification of Delivery Officially Made Today.

Seven white prisoners, none of them seriously charged, escaped from the local jail early last night by sawing their way out through a rear window and lowering themselves to the ground by tying three blankets together. The jail rooster gave notice of escape. The delivery was a clever piece of work on the part of the man who schemed the delivery. The blade of a large pocket knife had been gapped in such a manner that it had the effect of a hack saw. The knife and the iron bar, which had been sawed from the window, were found at the window by Jailer James P. Brooks, who discovered that there had been a delivery about 9.30 o'clock. The men who made their escape were:

R. A. Cary, Walter Henkle, with twelve days left and, William Wade, Roy Canupp and Luther Warren with fourteen days yet to serve. It was said that all of the men were serving short time for trespass on the Southern Railway not facing a more serious charge than this. All seven of them made good their escape and have not been seen since.

Chief-of-Police J. R. Bell was officially notified of the delivery about ten o'clock this morning by Jailer Brooks. The chief had been earlier approached and he then stated that he knew nothing of the facts, but had just heard that several men had escaped. City Sergeant P. H. Bousseau was also notified but said he was not acquainted with the facts.

Jailer Brooks, in reporting the matter, said that he was in his room about 9.30 o'clock when a rooster in the rear of the jail lot began cackling loudly and that this is not customary with the fowl unless something is amiss and he decided to investigate. The jailer said that at first he thought rats were bothering the chickens and that he got his shotgun and went to the rear of the jail. He saw three blankets tied together hanging from a window on the second floor and then realized that there had been a jail delivery. After looking around carefully to see if he could see anything of the men he returned to the jail to examine the window and determine how they got out. Lying in the window was a pocket knife which proved to be the instrument with which the prisoners had sawed a bar out. The larger blade was jagged at the end and the smaller blade resembling a hack saw. How the blade was gotten in this condition in jail is a mystery although the work might have been done on the outside and smuggled to the men. The bar which had been sawed out was also found at the bottom but the top of it had been sawed but very little and then broken off short. Examination of the bar plainly showed this.

The work of sawing through an iron bar with such a small blade would evidently have required no short length of time. Just how long this work was going on is not known. The men evidently left the knife to show how shrewd they were and what a clever piece of work they successfully accomplished.

While the jail delivery took place at 9.30 o'clock last night, it was not until ten o'clock this morning that the police department had on record for the members of the force the names of the men and the fact that they had escaped nearly twelve hours previously.

Norton and Ware To Be Given a Hearing Tomorrow

(Special to The Bee)
LEAKSVILLE, N. C., July 28.—Oscar J. Norton and Clarence Ware, two young men from Danville, will be given a hearing before Recorder P. C. Hazlip here tomorrow on charges of rape. Nina Spencer, a woman of this place, who is charged with aiding and abetting the alleged crime, will also be given a hearing. Both young men have been denied bail and are in jail at Wentworth. They have retained counsel to defend them. Disposition of the case cannot be made by the recorder, unless an acquittal is ordered. If sufficient evidence is produced, the case will be sent to the grand jury. The 13-year-old child who is the alleged victim, is reported to be improving.

CUT DOWN ACCIDENTS IS AIM OF NATION-WIDE MOVE

BY EDWARD M. THIERRY.
NEW YORK, July 28.—"Don't get hurt!" is the slogan being used by the Safety Institute of America in an anti-accident campaign under way throughout the United States. "Children are the chief victims of their own and other people's carelessness," says Laurence Vail Coleman, director of the institute. "And it is through the children, by continuous educational campaigns in the schools, that we hope to cut down the national bill paid each year for carelessness."

Elbert H. Gray, chairman of the United States Steel Corporation, a vice-president of the institute and a prime mover in its organization, will head the committee that will put on a "No-Accident Week" in New York next fall.

Similar campaigns already have been held in other cities, notably Baltimore and Boston, and an effort will be made to hold one in every important city in the nation.

"Forty per cent of all deaths in automobile accidents are children," says Director Coleman. "While deaths in industry have decreased 25 per cent since 1905, automobile deaths increased more than 3000 per cent."

"Children victims in New York alone," says Coleman, "were 375 in 1920 and 402 in 1921. More than 500 are predicted in 1922. Detroit, by its safety campaign, reduced child fatalities in auto accidents from 50 to 30 in a single year."

"Experiments have proved it is possible to decrease accidents by education. The best way to teach the children, they can be depended upon to teach the parents."

"One half the schools in America are now teaching safety. All should do so. The importance of the campaign may be appreciated by records that for every person killed in an accident there are 25 injured."

Here are the automobile deaths in 10 American cities picked at random from Safety Institute records, showing increases in five and decreases only in cities where safety campaigns have been in progress during the past two years:

City	1921	1922
New York	375	402
Chicago	256	248
Philadelphia	232	191
Detroit	240	154
St. Louis	102	97
Milwaukee	72	67
San Francisco	68	58

Erroneous Belief In Franklin County

A Danville man just back from Franklin county, where he looked closely into the political situation there, reported today a strange misconception which is prevalent in some of the remote parts of the county. While the common sentiment there is strong in favor of the new party, he found that the primary is tantamount to election and a number of voters seem to think that the primary is only a step toward a convention. For that reason he said a number of voters said that they did not propose to vote, although they were going to vote in the primary. He said they would have it to do, but they would have it to do in the November election when the truth would be known.

The primary of course decides the fate of the county, for there is no official Republican strength in a county to determine its own primary dates. It is a matter of general importance that the voters should vote in the primary next Tuesday, and this explanation is now being given all over the county where the strange misapprehension exists.

Florence Moody Clears Trotter Of Ugly Charge

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., July 28.—Testifying as a defense witness today in the separate maintenance suit brought by Mrs. Lottie M. Trotter against her husband, Rev. Melvin E. Trotter, prominent evangelist, Mr. Florence Moody, his former secretary, denied that the evangelist was the father of the baby born to her in 1917.

MRS. TROTTER'S MIND QUESTIONED AT TRIAL

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., July 27.—Two physicians who testified Mrs. Lottie M. Trotter questioned her mental condition according to their testimony in Superior court today in her separate maintenance action against Rev. Melvin E. Trotter, superintendent of the City Rescue mission. The physicians are Dr. G. L. Bond and Dr. Perry S. C. Hurtz.

When court adjourned this afternoon Miss Florence Moody, former secretary to Trotter and to whom Mrs. Trotter charges was born a child in the summer of 1917, of which Trotter was the father, was on the witness stand.

Attired modestly but neatly in a blue voile dress and with a black straw hat, her voice was trembling yet distinct. Just once during the preliminary questions did she break down. That was when she said Mrs. Trotter had urged her to return to the work at the mission after the birth of her child.

Mrs. Trotter, with jaws set, fanned herself with rapidity. Mr. Trotter drew his spectacles from his eyes and with lips shut tightly listened to the story of the girl, for every one knows Florence Moody as "the mission girl" despite her 34 years.

Miss Moody is expected to testify when court convenes Friday morning, that Trotter was not the father of her child. She has already given an affidavit which has been produced in court to that effect.

I went to work at the mission for 36 a week but that was not the reason I went there.

It was the thought of getting in to the Lord's service, she testified. She added that her relations with Trotter and his wife were friendly until conference time in January, 1918.

I regarded Mrs. Trotter next to my own mother. I loved her as much and I believe she loved me. Miss Moody testified. We went shopping together. I was in her home much of the time. I did not know of any change in her attitude toward me until she attacked me at the mission in February of that year.

"Did Mrs. Trotter urge to return to your work at the mission after you left the hospital?" asked Attorney Ward Trotter's counsel, who produced the witness.

"Mrs. Trotter came to see me two or three times. She took me to the mission once or twice and said I must go back to the mission. I said I could not see how I could return and face my friends. She told me over and over they were my friends, that the people would ask questions if I did not go back and she was insistent that I should go back. I did not back and stayed until the following February."

A paragraph from a letter which Dr. Bond wrote Trotter after the physician had examined Mrs. Trotter was produced during the afternoon. It read:

Now I want to say something to you about Mrs. Trotter. I did not have a good chance to say the other night.

"I think it is very important that you should have someone give her a thorough examination both physical and mental. She is a very good person and should see her. My impression the other night was that she was not sane but I am not competent to do neurological work and so my opinion is of little value aside from pointing the way. I think also that her physical condition should be investigated for the necessity of a cure."

Gilbert L. Paane, banker and member of the mission board who was delegated with Peter D. Becker, another director of the board, to interview Mrs. Moody relative to Mrs. Trotter's charges against her husband, was another witness today.

"I will tell you the name of the man if you demand it, but he is married and has a family and it will mean breaking up a home," he quoted Miss Moody.

Further Arrest In Leman Murder

Companion of Woman Found Slain Near Baltimore More Heard to Say She Would Not Return Alive.

BALTIMORE, Md., July 28.—Through a letter sent to a friend in Fairmont, W. A. Carmela Malone, for whom the police have been seeking in connection with the Bella Leman mystery was located yesterday in Leith suburb of Uniontown, Pa.

On being arrested she said she would return to Baltimore willingly with W. B. Dorsey, lieutenant of police of Baltimore county and George W. Armstrong, city detective. She also declared she would tell all she knew.

She was first taken to Fairmont. Later Lieutenant Dorsey and Detective Armstrong left Fairmont with the woman for Baltimore and are expected to live in this city this morning.

Frank Straface, known as "Old Six," a 70-year-old Italian who conducts a fruit store on Water street, Fairmont, received a letter in the Tuesday morning mail from Miss Malone, in which she asked Straface to take care of her clothes pending her arrival in Fairmont within a few days.

Fearful Seizure of Clothes

John C. McKim, detective of Fairmont, said yesterday that she probably feared the seizure of her clothes by her boarding house mistress in payment of a bill. The clothes have not been touched since she mysteriously disappeared after Bella Leman started for Baltimore on the trip that ended in her murder.

Miss Malone told the police that she knew Tony Corbo, by sight, but had never associated with him. She said she had seen him a few days before the murder in Fairmont and before she left there for Leith. She had not corresponded with him, she said, and knew nothing of his present whereabouts.

She was charged shortly after noon last Tuesday that Straface, a policeman on his beat, and said that he had received a letter from Miss Malone. Straface is well known to the police.

Dancing Manager Named By Staunch In Divorce Action

Feeling Tense As Primary Date Is Drawing Near

Jesse Benton, clerk of the Electoral Board, has found it necessary to make material revision of the judges and clerks of election in next Tuesday's primary. In many instances he found the original appointees unable to serve and several changes had to be made. Several women have been appointed to act as clerks. In the last election one woman clerk served so successfully that it was decided to increase the number this year.

The judges and clerks, by wards are as follows:

I. Judges—W. R. Purdum, A. Ellwanger, C. H. Culppepper. Clerks—St. Clair Winkler, Inez Motlev.

II. Judges—P. L. Grasty, G. H. Guernsey, John G. Lea. Clerks—J. K. Carter, Harry Silverman.

III. Judges—J. A. Hawkins, George S. Moore, A. R. Gravelly. Clerks—Fielding Morgan, Blanche Hodges.

IV. Judges—T. L. Patrick, H. B. Watkins, W. H. Dodson. Clerks—James Brown, Carrie Oliver.

V. Judges—J. H. Aldridge, J. M. Pollock, T. W. Wilkins. Clerks—Agnes Ragland, Lula Daly.

VI. Judges—John L. Taylor, T. E. Davis, R. B. Rodgers. Clerks—James Boisseau, Lucille Walton.

The campaign is in its final phases, with only two more working days, Saturday and Monday. Today banners appeared on automobiles in advocacy of Frank Cabott. The opposing camp is understood to be preparing some literature advocating the election of Eugene Marshall. Tuesday promises to be an unusually fervid day here politically. Both sides have prepared big working organizations and the streets will be thronged with voters in automobiles will bring out the vote and see to it that no voter lacks the opportunity of being carried to the polls who otherwise would not be able to go.

The electoral board proposes to have the returns telephoned to the office of the Secretary after the count is made, thus having an authentic return made to the Board on the night of the election. One judge in every precinct will be charged with this responsibility.

Drug Store At Martinsville Is Damaged By Fire

(Special to The Bee)
MARTINSVILLE, July 28.—The Central Drug Store in the Masonic building on the corner of Church and Gray streets, was damaged by fire and was early this morning. The greater portion of the fire was on the second floor in the regular meeting hall of the Masons, over the drug company, which was damaged mostly by water. The fire was discovered about 10 o'clock this morning. No estimate of the damage done by fire or either by the water could be given this morning but will not be a large figure it was said. A meeting was held in the lodge rooms last night and it was thought that a lighted cigarette was carelessly thrown down and started a slow-burning or smoldering blaze.

Rich Coney Island Restaurant Owner Says His Wife, 51, Gave Admirers Costly Gifts — Former Chauffeur and Singer Also Mentioned.

NEW YORK, July 28.—Louis Staunch, millionaire Coney Island dance hall and restaurant proprietor, has filed suit for divorce against Mrs. Mathilda Staunch, naming three respondents. It was learned yesterday.

The complaint alleges, according to his attorney Julian V. Carabba, that Mrs. Staunch, who is fifty-one, left him two years ago. Those named as co-respondents are Charles Miller, formerly chauffeur for Mrs. Staunch; Grover Muller, also known as Grover Wall, formerly Mr. Staunch's dance hall manager; and Thomas Penfold, tenor singer.

Muller is named as the chief co-respondent. Mr. Carabba said the complaint alleging that Mrs. Staunch maintained an apartment at No. 400 Riverside Drive, at which he lived, and that she bought him an expensive automobile. She also had an apartment at No. 420 Eighth Avenue, in the Park Slope district of Brooklyn, he says.

The suit was filed in the Rockland County Supreme Court on Tuesday, the hope of avoiding publicity. The papers were served on Mrs. Staunch July 14 at the Empire City race track Mr. Carabba said. He quotes Mrs. Staunch as saying: "I've been expecting this for some time."

"I don't know where she is now," Mr. Staunch said yesterday. "I am chiefly interested in settling my financial affairs."

Recently sold his business to a syndicate. He is continuing to act as manager.

Mrs. Staunch was cashier in the dance pavilion when Muller was manager. His salary was $25 a week, the tenor, was singing there then.

"I understand," said Mr. Staunch, that she bought Penfold two race horses. She is very fond of the horses herself. I guess I've stuck too close to business. I've found all my pleasure in that."

Staunch who is 64, is one of Coney Island's most picturesque figures. He went there, a penniless youth, 45 years ago, and did not have enough money for a hotel room, so he slept on the beach the first night. He is known as a self-made man.

His first job was as dishwasher and potato peeler in a small lunch stand. He saved his earnings. When he had amassed $10 he opened his first place—a dance hall. It prospered. As his bank account grew he invested wisely in Coney Island realty. It is one of the legends of Coney that "Staunch hasn't been off the island but four times in forty-five years."

He met the present Mrs. Staunch about twenty years ago, in the heyday of his career. Coney then was a rendezvous of gay spirits, in the pre-Volstead sense, and Staunch placed a note for the excellence of his champagne, two-for-a-quarter whiskies and other liquors.

"Those days have gone forever," was Mr. Staunch's comment a few weeks ago, when he sold out for $500,000.

It is believed by his friends that his martial troubles had something to do with his decision to retire.

FIREMEN DEPARTMENT
CALLED OUT LAST NIGHT

The Patton street fire department was called out by telephone at 8:45 o'clock last night to Henry Arstein's office department in the Leeland Hotel building. More smoke than anything else was found by the firemen when they arrived, there being very little fire. This was extinguished with chemicals with very little damage being done. Arstein operated a cleaning and pressing establishment and late yesterday afternoon some one carelessly left an electric iron with the current on. The iron was red hot when the firemen discovered it and had burned through the wooden article and was smoldering a suit of clothes. The quick work prevented any great damage.

KIWANIS CLUB HOLDS MEET AT THE GOLF CLUB

The Golf Club was the scene of an excellent meeting of the Danville Kiwanis Club last night, where about seventy members gathered for dinner which proved to be a well prepared and satisfying repast. Between courses there was spirited singing of both old and new songs under the live leadership of J. B. Head. Like certain brands of fruit juices, he seems to develop more punch as he grows old. At the conclusion of the dinner, drawing was held for the attendance prizes, given for this meeting by Kiwanian Glen Updike. They were awarded Allen Herman and Hones and Lay. Bob Mobley was the generous donor of the silent boost, which was a cigar at each man's plate.

The club welcomed to membership E. B. Bannan, member of the town of Bannan-Murray Company and Dudley Brown, well known florist. Several out-of-town visitors were guests.

Dr. J. Latham and Charles G. Evans were speakers of the evening. Dr. Latham, who spoke first, outlined the chaotic condition of world affairs and pessimism prevailing in some quarters then in his inimitable levelling manner drew back the clouds to show the silver lining. In answer to certain religious sects who claim that the end of the world is approaching, he said that God would not take such infinite pains in preparing the earth for man's coming, and then destroy it before man had as equally long a time to perfect himself.

Mr. Evans' address, which followed the lines of resolutions recently adopted by the club that topics of interest be discussed at each meeting, reviewed the relations between the United States government and the islands of Haiti and Santo Domingo. During the course of his remarks he brought to light many interesting features of America's protective interest in these small countries, and the wonderful good that has been accomplished there. He denounced the Department of State against anyone who ever that armed forces should be withdrawn from the island. His talk was most timely in view of Secretary Hughes' recent announcement that the American control of the island could be continued until the inhabitants were fully capable of self government, and the chances of exploitation by foreign nations eliminated. His address was profitably constructive and received a most attentive audience.

Outstandingly unanimously adopted last night the Kiwanis Club's plan of good fellowship was extended to the newly formed Lions Club, and co-operation was promised the new organization in its efforts for civic betterment.

NEGRO IS GIVEN LIFE SENTENCE

Hotel Belvidere at Reidsville Has a Brilliant Opening

REIDSVILLE, N. C., July 27 (Staff Correspondence).—Reidsville's splendid new modern hotel, The Belvidere, admirably situated on the main highway, had its formal opening tonight, and it was an auspicious one, proving an enjoyable occasion to all present. This handsome fire-proof structure five stories in height, with basement in addition, was recently completed at a cost of approximately $200,000, is admirably warmed and equipped with the most efficient elevator service, electrically lighted and equipped with local and long distance telephone service in each of its 62 guest-rooms. Only the best materials have been used in constructing it, and in its plumbing and lighting equipment and the comfort its high pitched rooms offer it is a hostelry which will not only meet the needs of this substantial, thrifty and rapidly growing city, but will attract patronage from a wide radius.

Early this evening the belles and beaux of Reidsville in evening dress began to assemble and were greeted by strains of music from an excellent five-piece orchestra stationed in the foyer. At 8 o'clock dinner was announced and in a few minutes the spacious dining room was filled with 120 diners being seated around the tables, snowy in their linens and glistening with silver cut glass and handsome china which are part of the hotel's equipment. While the orchestra alternated jazz music with the most beautiful and beautiful numbers, the waiters were busy serving an excellent course dinner, the menu and service of which would have done credit to any of the hotels in the larger cities. The dinner was served in the simplicity and admirable taste displayed in its interior decoration constituted a fitting frame for the picture presented by this charming and congenial company, which embraced guests from Leesville and nearby towns, from Norfolk, from Greensboro and Danville and from all over Rockingham county, the national capital being represented by an honored and esteemed North Carolinian, Major J. P. Smith, an official of the Southern railway.

As soon as the diners had enjoyed a congenial hour over the menu and in conversation and the making or renewals of acquaintance, the toastmaster easily gained the attention of all, and a program of informal addresses was made, all appreciative of the triumph of community effort and enterprise in the provision of such a real hotel for Reidsville.

Among the speakers on this occasion was A. W. Dure of Leesville, who congratulated Reidsville and Rockingham county on its splendid achievement and happily expressed his pleasure in being present to celebrate it.

C. P. Childers then made a happy presentation of Major J. P. Smith, industrial agent of the Southern railway, and the visitor was given a most cordial greeting. In his easy, natural and graceful style, Major Smith traced the movement resulting in the construction of the hotel from its genesis in which it developed that his own suggestion had played a part to its hand-on consumption in the finished structure. He congratulated the town and the county on such a result and then indulged in some reminiscent remarks in tribute to the men who had furnished the push for the movement.

Other speakers included President R. S. Montgomery of the hotel company, J. R. McGuffey of the Southern Public Utilities company, Judge Humphries of Rockingham county, Alderman Thompson, A. H. Taylor of Danville, Alderman Thompson, who spoke for the town of Reidsville, Messrs. Anderson and Vaughn, Judge Haislip of Spray, and Scott Filman of Reidsville.

Judge Humphries, after congratulating the projectors of the Belvidere and expressing his pleasure in being present, spoke a word in behalf of the co-operative playgrounds movement in Rockingham county. He appealed for the active support of the 45,000 people of the county in pressing the program to successful conclusion.

At the conclusion of the informal talks, Mr. Waite noted a rising vote of thanks for the success of the Belvidere, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Jones, Jr. and 150 of the hotel company for the elegant entertainment and the enjoyable evening. Thereafter the party adjourned to the ball room, where the orchestra had laid the way, and there the young people and some of the older indulged in the dancing to the strains of the orchestra, while the older element looked on and partied a foot in evening.

The hotel is the result of a move ment inaugurated by the General and A. H. Taylor, a local association and its efforts in inducing the public spirit and cooperation of citizens of Reidsville and the county more than 100,000 stockholders in the company by which the project was made a reality.

NEGRO BAKES SAVINGS PIE IN KITCHEN STOVE

The danger of keeping accumulated savings hidden away in the home rather than entrust it to the bank was emphasized here yesterday when a resident of the county took to the First National Bank a cardboard box containing the charred remains of greenbacks, copper and silver coins—all that remained of the life savings of a negro whose name was not learned, but who is said to live some distance beyond Schoolfield. The charred fragments of greenbacks and the flame scorched coins represented the remains of $12,000 which the negro had saved throughout his life. The circumstances surrounding the destruction of the money were unique. Fearful lest the bag in which he kept his money be stolen, he placed it in the stove of his humble abode. He forgot where he had put it and several days later he lit the stove to cook a meal. It did not then dawn on him that he was burning up his savings and it was the following week when he had more money to stow away in the sack that he remembered putting it in the stove. Looking through the embers his foreboding came back to him in sinister form, for all he could find were the charred remains of the greenbacks and a quantity of pennies and small silver coins. He religiously gathered up the remains and put them in a box sending them to the bank in the hope that he might be able to redeem some of the paper money, which had not been carbonized. It was at the bank yesterday that the negro might recover about $25 in all. The bank officials propose to exhibit the box and its contents for the costly experience of this unfortunate negro serve with it a strong moral.

GEN. PERSHING IS INVITED TO DANVILLE

"Dear Buddy" are the first two words of a letter which Hugh T. Williams, adjutant of the Danville Post American Legion, addressed yesterday to General J. J. Pershing in Washington, inviting him to come to Danville, next Armistice Day to deliver the principal address of the day. Mr. Williams, after discussing the matter with other officials of the Legion decided that it would be just as well to take time by the forelock in securing the presence here of General Pershing, realizing that his presence will be eagerly sought all over the country on that day and believing Danville's chances of getting the famed leader would be brighter by making an early request. The local post does not intend to let it go at that. Pressure is to be brought on General Pershing in Washington and every effort will be made to secure his appearance here in November 11th. It is hoped also to have Senator Claude A. Swanson and Governor Trinkle in Danville on that day.

Armistice Day this year is to have a special significance and plans will go forward before long to make it a big day in civic history.

Until replies have been received from her children who have been wired funeral arrangements will not be announced.

CHATHAM NEWS

CHATHAM, July 27.—The Roanoke Baptist Association, composed of the churches in Pittsylvania county and a few in the counties of Henry and Halifax, met in annual session with the Straightons church on Tuesday, closing on Wednesday afternoon. The meetings each day being well attended. On roll-call the pastor of every church in the Association responded present, and in this one particular, the meeting surpassed many of the past. The number of members are shown by the records were more than nine thousand and this number was above half fifteen years ago. During the past fiscal year around 1,000 members were added to the various churches and the reports were very encouraging. Financial reports were very good and the meeting was well attended and much enjoyed by all present. The next meeting is yet undecided, an invitation was made from County Line church in the same section but it was proposed to have a joint meeting of the Association, the B. Y. P. U. Convention and the Sunday School Convention at the Chatham Training School next year. The meetings to cover about one week and in addition there would be some Chautauque feature. This is yet undecided.

Ground has been broken for the large prizer building near the Southern Depot and the building will be rushed with all possible speed as the machinery is to be shipped here. It is the desire of the owners to have the building ready to house it when received.

The beautiful new home of W. P. Coles will be added to North Main street and ground has been broken and Mr. Coles hopes to be in it by late this year.

A residence is to be erected next to the home of Mr. Leo Paul will move to make room for Mr. M. S. Jones who will occupy his property on Main street.

Brightest Star In Northern Sky Now Called Vega

WASHINGTON, July 28.—A little to the east of the meridian in the early evening hours of July one may see the magnificent sapphire-hued Vega, whose name is derived from the Arabic for "weighing scales." It is the brightest star north of the celestial equator. Vega is exactly equal in brightness to Alpha Centauri, which is invisible in our latitudes, and not to Sirius and Canopus, those stars are the brightest to us in the heavens. Vega is a star of unusual interest for several reasons in addition to its being of exceptional brightness. It lies close to the "Apex of the Sun's Way," the point toward which the sun and the solar system is moving. It is also one of the nearest stars in the heavens. The most reliable determination of its parallax indicates that its light takes only about 25 years to travel the distance to us. The only bright stars that lie nearer to us than Vega are Alpha Centauri, Sirius, Procyon, Altair and Fomalhaut at a distance of 4, 3, 8, 7, 11, 13 and 23 light years respectively.

Will Be Pole Star For Many Years

The procession of the equinoxes which causes the pole of the equator to describe a circle of 23 1/2 degrees radius about the pole of the ecliptic in a period of about 25,800 years will bring Vega to the north pole of the heavens about 12,000 years from now, when it will be a most magnificent pole star.

The position of Vega in the heavens is such that it is carried through the zenith of Washington and all places in the same latitude. As its transit, the meridian, then, it passes almost directly overhead for those who live close to the thirty-ninth parallel of latitude.

Vega is one of the most easily recognized stars in the heavens, not only because of its superior brilliancy and distinctive color, but also because it is closely followed on the celestial sphere by the fourth magnitude star, which for with it a small equilateral triangle with sides about two degrees in extent. The northern of these two stars is a quadruple of double stars, now known as Delta 1, which a sharp eye can split in two stars without telescopic aid. A small telescope shows that each of these two stars is also double. The four stars for a connected system in which the two close stars revolve about a common center of gravity of themselves with the more distant pair.

Maniac Shoots Two Women, Kills Self

PHILADELPHIA, July 28.—Sudden death came upon William Smith, an inmate of the Presbyterian Home for Aged Couples and Single Men, today shot two women, one of them being Mrs. Lillian Pierce, superintendent of the institution. He then died to his own death and took his own life by slashing his throat with a razor and firing a bullet into his head.

Mrs. Pierce had just bowed her head to say grace at the noon meal, when the 120 inmates, most of them women, assembled in the dining room, when Smith appeared in the doorway brandishing a revolver. With a yell he began shooting. Mrs. Pierce fell to the floor with a bullet wound in her neck. Her assistant, Miss Elizabeth Wise, was struck in the right arm.

The aged and feeble men and women fled from the room as best they could. Smith fired three more shots, one of which took effect. Shouting, "I'll kill any one who comes near me," Smith made his way to the third floor. The inmates and the help were all too frightened to think of pursuing him. Some one called the police and a patrolman entered Smith's room just in time to see the man take his life.

Despite the two wounds, he struggled with the officer for several minutes before he fell. The condition of neither of the injured women is serious. Miss Odeline Graham, another inmate of the institution, was also present at the time of the shooting.

Ship Believed Lost On Gulf

PORT ARTHUR, Tex., July 28.—Wireless messages to the Port Arthur naval station from the steamer Charles Braley, seventy-five miles northwest of Tampico, reporting the vessel in a sinking condition, ceased suddenly yesterday and it is believed the vessel is lost.

The last message received here said the crew was taking to the open sea in lifeboats. First messages from the Charles Braley were interrupted at 6 o'clock yesterday morning, saying, "Steamship Charles Braley sinking seventy-five miles northwest of Tampico. All hands still on board at this time but preparing to abandon ship at any time."

Later efforts to communicate with the ship resulted in the message, "Ship sinking, don't worry," followed by dozens of messages from members of the crew to relatives. Later efforts to communicate with the doomed ship were fruitless. The naval station here was advised that the steamer Gulf Star stood by the Charles Braley.

This Flapper Robber Trims Little Boys

MILWAUKEE, Wis., July 28.—A new angle in crime was registered at Police headquarters today when a nine-year-old boy reported he had been held up and $1.00 in change taken from him by a "flapper bandit" not much more than fifteen years old.

The affair was made more mysterious by the statements of residents of the vicinity of the holdup that a "flapper" had been seen in the area. The boy, Eugene Bailey, told the police that he had been held up by a "flapper" who had taken his money and then trimmed his hair.

"Me and another boy was coming from the store with mother's groceries in my wagon. A girl came up—she had short hair, in a blue dress and black tennis shoes—and asked me to give her the pocketbook because the lady in the store didn't know if she's five or ten years old. I told her she'd better come home and tell my mamma, but she said she had to go downtown right away and didn't have time so I gave her the pocketbook. I didn't know anything was wrong until I came home and saw mamma, and she said I'd been robbed."

I ran right back to the lady in the store and asked her if she'd sent a girl out to get my pocketbook, but the lady said she hadn't and I knew mamma was right. I'll watch out now, you bet. I'd know that girl's voice if I heard it anywhere. 'n I'll be on the lookout now."

MILWAUKEE, Wis., July 28.—A new angle in crime was registered at Police headquarters today when a nine-year-old boy reported he had been held up and $1.00 in change taken from him by a "flapper bandit" not much more than fifteen years old.

The affair was made more mysterious by the statements of residents of the vicinity of the holdup that a "flapper" had been seen in the area. The boy, Eugene Bailey, told the police that he had been held up by a "flapper" who had taken his money and then trimmed his hair.

"Me and another boy was coming from the store with mother's groceries in my wagon. A girl came up—she had short hair, in a blue dress and black tennis shoes—and asked me to give her the pocketbook because the lady in the store didn't know if she's five or ten years old. I told her she'd better come home and tell my mamma, but she said she had to go downtown right away and didn't have time so I gave her the pocketbook. I didn't know anything was wrong until I came home and saw mamma, and she said I'd been robbed."

I ran right back to the lady in the store and asked her if she'd sent a girl out to get my pocketbook, but the lady said she hadn't and I knew mamma was right. I'll watch out now, you bet. I'd know that girl's voice if I heard it anywhere. 'n I'll be on the lookout now."

DAVIS' RECORD IN WAR RAPPED

RICHMOND, Va., July 27.—Samuel L. Kelley, addressing a political meeting at the John Marshall High school auditorium last night, charged that former Governor Westmoreland Davis in 1917, after his nomination, objected to the passage by the state Democratic committee of a resolution endorsing the course of President Wilson and the entrance of America into world war.

Mr. Kelley declared that, in his opinion, this one incident, balanced against the war record of Senator Claude A. Swanson, should be sufficient to cause the average Virginia voter to cast a ballot against Mr. Davis and in favor of Senator Swanson.

Mr. Kelley's charge came at a point in his speech when he was paying tribute to Woodrow Wilson and his leadership during the war. He referred to a letter received by Harry M. Smith, Jr., from former President Wilson, in which Mr. Wilson praised Senator Swanson for loyalty to the administration, particularly during the war period.

Mr. Kelley said that the Third was the only congressional district in which Mr. Davis stands a chance of getting a majority vote. This district, however, he predicted, would go for Swanson by a substantial majority.

Mr. Smith reviewed the record of Senator Swanson as congressman, governor and senator, and declared that he would carry every district in the state next Tuesday.

RUSSIAN DOCTOR IS IN DESPAIR

LONDON, July 27.—Pathetic letters are received here every day from prominent Russians in Moscow and other large Soviet centers depicting the plight of the population under the present regime. Writing to one of the London newspapers, Professor Christitch, an eminent physician, says that everyone is anxious to come to Europe or America to see how human beings live.

"We are living a life of beasts," says the latter, "and we think only of wood and food. We are cut off from all civilized life and sympathizing people. You cannot, perhaps, understand how heavy life is without intellectual impressions, without books and newspapers and friendly conversations.

"Our hearts are so hardened by sufferings and losses that deaths of friends and relations make no more impression upon us than trivial events. Nevertheless we continue to hope to be human beings again." In the old Czarist days my wife and I longed for political freedom. Today my wife's ideal is to have a pair of stockings at 2,000,000 rubles a pair.

"We are all alive. That is the principal thing these days. We sold our things in the hope to buy new ones when we moved from Azan to Petrograd, but we ate all our money. We are very rich now in Russia, but only in numerals. You see the stamp upon this letter cost 100,000 rubles. A loaf of bread costs three times that. We live and we are satisfied that we live and that the winter has passed. I fear to give you all the news for it is such a long list of dead from need as and ruin."

LONG SKIRTS

For evening, gowns are being worn very long. It is said the first time the American traveler does when she arrives in Paris is to buy a gown with a long skirt so she will not be out of fashion.

Woman Who'd Be Senator Says She Can Cut Divorce Three-Fourths

DR. ANNA HOCHFELDER

BY MARIAN HALL

MARRIAGE, divorce and sex education will be objects of new state legislation, Dr. Anna Hochfelder, Brooklyn Democratic candidate for nomination as state senator, gains the opinion.

Our greatest reforms and most radical legislation need to be directed along these lines, she believes, and here is the field for the woman politician to work.

"The welfare of our nation depends on improvement of home conditions and rearing of better citizens," she declares.

We do not admit an alien unless he passes certain physical tests and proves himself desirable.

Yet in our own country we put practically no restriction on marriages to prevent diseased and criminal people from pouring into the world defective children the state must care for.

"Our laws should provide for sex education for those about to be married. Such education would reduce by three-fourths the applications for divorce.

"Every woman before a marriage license is issued should be required to present evidence of her skill in the trade or occupation which would enable her to support her children if she became a widow.

The man should be required to certify he is capable of providing for himself and wife, and that for at least three months prior to his application he has had lawful and gainful employment.

"Our school systems need to be changed so that by the time a boy or girl has finished high school he or she is trained to do some particular thing to earn a living.

"The question we face is this: Just what is to predominate in our country, quality or quantity? Are we to consider population irrespective of quality our goal, or are we to work for quality as we do in breeding a finer type of animal?"

Dr. Hochfelder's views are the result of her experience as a wife, mother of two sons, school teacher, probation officer, social worker and attorney.

She is 39.

Strong Pressure To End the Coal Strike Brought

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., July 27.—Powerful influences, governmental and otherwise, are understood to be at work to arrange an interstate joint wage conference and thereby bring to an end the soft coal strike. John L. Lewis, head of the United Mine Workers, would not indicate today where and how these influences are being exerted, but he let it be known in a public statement that he had "every reason to believe" that an interstate joint conference of the central competitive fields will be arranged within a few days.

Mr. Lewis expressed this belief after two days of conferring with the district presidents of the union from Western Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana. This territory and Illinois comprise the central competitive fields. Illinois was not represented at the meetings.

It was made known by union leaders that as soon as they have assurance that sufficient tonnage will be represented at an interstate conference to make a basic wage scale possible a call for the meeting will be issued at once.

DENY REPORTS THAT MEETING IS PLANNED

WASHINGTON, July 27.—Officials of the national coal association said tonight they had been authorized by Alfred M. Ogilvie, president of that organization, to deny any plan of a meeting of operators of the central competitive field, was in prospect, looking to an end of the soft coal strike.

Association officials said at one of the final meetings of coal operators in Washington tonight the subject was thoroughly canvassed with the decision that no move would be made in the central field strike as an entity.

CHINESE GENERAL CHRIST'N CONVERT

NEW YORK, July 27.—A personal picture of General Feng Tzu-siang, known as the Christian general in the forces of Wu Pei-fu, is contained in a letter from the top of Mt. Omei, in Shanghai, which has been received here by Protestant Episcopal leaders. Bishop Graves is said to have known General Feng for a number of years.

Feng has been elevated to the governorship of Honan province, writes Bishop Graves, and his conversion is indicative of him that when he attended a big reception recently in his honor he rode to the Y. M. C. A. hall on a bicycle with a few unnamed attendants, instead of being surrounded by the customary mounted escort. His first Sunday morning found Feng attending a joint service of all the Christian denominations at Kaifeng at the Spang Kung Hui, or Episcopal church. Here the Christian general preached a sermon from the text: "To him that knoweth his do good and doeth not evil, him it is sin."

"He appropriated out of his private funds a sum sufficient to care for the beggars who infested the city until employment could be obtained for them, at the same time announcing that those who wanted to work for a living must leave Honan."

Feng, according to Episcopal missionaries, became a convert to Christianity 11 years ago when, attacked by a disease which native physicians declared incurable, he was restored to health by the ministrations of a Christian medical missionary. Thousands of his soldiers have embraced the religious faith of their leader and victory on the field is frequently followed by a service of thanksgiving to a Christian character which is led by General Feng himself, it is reported.

"General Feng is somewhat of a Cromwell in his religious ideas," Bishop Graves said. "But there is no question at all of his sincerity. He shares hard conditions with his men."

EARLY SETTLEMENT OF STRIKE IS DEAD ISSUE

ST. LOUIS, July 27.—(By The Associated Press)—Early settlement of the miners strike in Illinois was declared to be "a dead issue" tonight following the adjournment of the miners state executive board after a brief session in which the other business it was announced, was the calling off of a state convention at Peoria August 2, called yesterday.

Montebello Plant Employee

ability to impersonate a police officer,

Shanklin lives near Lake Monte-

new Cordial Called "Anti-Ferment," Originated by a Druggist and Recommended by Physidition of Stomach, Prevents Fermentation and Brings Instant Relief.

Indigestion and its attendant ills,
such as dyspepsia, heart-burn, sour stomach, griping pains, dizziness, diarrhoea, colic, cholera morbus, chronic constipation, gas, etc., and even sick, nervous headaches are now directly traceable to disorders in the digestive organs.

The food sours before it is fully digested, thus putting into solution toxic poisons that are absorbed into the system, irritating the intestines and setting up inflammation. To avoid this you simply have to prevent fermentation by using Anti-Ferment.

Anti-Ferment neutralizes the acid condition of the stomach, cleanses and sweetens the bowels, soothes and heals the inflamed intestines and increases the flow of gastric juices, giving quick and certain relief. Get a bottle of Anti-Ferment from your druggist with

S. S. S. Fills Out
Yellow Cheeks,
Thins Limbs!

Man and woman, whether you will ever build yourself up to your normal, just-right weight depends on the number of red blood-cells in your blood. That's all there is to it. It's a scientific fact.
If your blood-cell factory isn't working right, you will be run-down, thin, your blood will be in disorder, and perhaps your face will be broken out with pimples, blackheads and eruptions.
S. S. S. keeps your blood-cell factory working full time. It helps build new blood-cells. That's why
S. S. S. builds up thin, run-down people. It puts firm flesh on your bones.
It rounds out your face, arms, neck, limbs, the whole body. It takes the hollowness from the eyes, and it foils Fatigue Time by smoothing out wrinkles in men and women by "plumping" them up. S. S. S. is a remarkable blood-purifier. While you are getting plump, your skin eruptions, pimples, blackheads, acne, rheumatism, rash,
fever, blotches are being removed.
The medicinal ingredients of S. S. S. are guaranteed purely vegetable.
S. S. S. is sold at all drug stores in two

Watched Car Monday Night
Shanklin knew all this. He knew cause he had watched and made note Monday night he watched one particular car. In the car were James F. Conrad, 2540 Edmondson avenue, and a girl. Shanklin approached.

Conrad says he demanded his registration card. After that, according to Conrad's story, Shanklin informed him that he was arrested on a charge of disorderly conduct, and would have to go to the station.

"I asked him how I could fix it up," Conrad says. "He offered him a box of cigars, but he said that wasn't enough.
He said there was another officer on the same job and that both would have to be taken care of. I got out of my sedan and we talked it over."

I had only $2 in my pockets, so I told him I would pay for my share and would straighten it out. He tried to make me leave the young lady at the street car line, but I insisted that we take her home.

On the way I asked him what the tax was. He wanted to know what I thought was right and I told him $10.

That's not enough," he said. "I'll have to have $10 for the other officer, too."

Well, I gave him the $20 and then he told me to take him back to his beat again. We went out the Hartford road and he asked to be let out at a dark spot. I thought that was funny, and when I saw another car coming I told him to get out.

Found Him in Job Again
Conrad complained to the police, and Tuesday night Sedgt. John Ohle and Motorcycle Patrolman Andrew Randlett, of the Northeastern district went out with him to see if the "officer" was on duty again.

They found him with a pair of binoculars, surveying the shores of the lake which were not yet darkened.
Inside his coat was a badge marked "Special Officer No. 1—Water Department."

Police say the man is not a special officer. He is a foreman at the plant at the lake.

At the hearing yesterday before Magistrate Rohleder, Shanklin had nothing to say. On the charge of obtaining "$20 by false pretenses" and on a second charge of impersonating an officer he was held for grand jury action. Bond was made $1,000 on each charge.

U. S. To Bid Nations
Help Rid Sea Of Oil

WASHINGTON, July 27.—Secretary of State Hughes soon will invite the maritime nations of the world to a conference to consider ways and means to curb the pollution of ocean beaches and waterways with oil.

With a view to developing a definite proposal for submission to the international conference, an inter-departmental committee has been appointed to study the problem in all its phases.

Several weeks ago Congress passed a measure introduced by Representative Appleby of New Jersey providing for the calling of such a conference. It was approved by President Harding and the appointment of an inter-departmental committee quickly followed.

On the committee are representatives of the departments of state, war, navy, commerce, interior, agriculture and the shipping board.

There have been many complaints concerning the fouling of New Jersey and other beaches with oil from ships and other beaches with oil from ships and the increased fire hazards along the shores due to accumulations of oil which are washed ashore.

Some foreign governments have tackled the problem vigorously. For example, Holland has a sort of interior port, in which ships burning fuel oil may dump their refuse and other bilge, after which the oil and water mixture is run through a separating process and the oil recovered.
An American is said to have invented a process by which this can be done on shipboard, and the recovered oil pumped back into fuel tanks, and it is considered probable that this latter process, when perfected, will solve the problem so far as oil burning vessels are concerned.

The greatest single source of pollution on this side of the Atlantic, however, is from tank steamers, which return from abroad in water ballast just before entering our ports their practice is to pump out the water, which takes with it considerable quantities of oil and refuse sediment.

GROWERS POOL TOBACCO CROP IN WISCONSIN

MADISON, Wis., July 27.—Tobacco growers of Wisconsin are perfecting a growers pool recently organized to handle the warehousing and sale of the 60,000,000 pounds of tobacco that the farmers expect will be grown in the state this year.

Nearly 85 per cent of Wisconsin's 40,000 acre tobacco crop was contracted for by the pool in its membership drive just completed. Organizers of the co-operative marketing association, the largest ever undertaken in the state, are now confronted with the problem of financing the project, which will require initial funds of $5,- 000,000, according to estimates of the state department of markets.

With financial aid virtually assured by Wisconsin banks, the organization is getting under way. Warehouses are to be purchased in the growing centers of the state, a sales manager engaged by the board of directors and a complete marketing system perfected before the crop is cured and ready for the tobacco market late this fall.

Need for Wrappers
Wisconsin's product makes up a large part of the wrapper tobacco for cigars. Nearly all of the 60,000,000 pounds produced annually goes for this purpose, and commands a high price on the markets of the country.
Two principal growing sections of the state are in the northwest counties and the southern counties.

The success of the tobacco pool,
which was organized under direction of the state department of markets,
means the operation during the present year of this state's largest co-operative enterprise. The value of its product is expected to total more than that handled by the Wisconsin cheese producers' federation, one of the successful co-operative undertakings engaged in by Wisconsin farmers.

Through the department of markets, created by the 1921 session of the Wisconsin legislature, farmers' cooperative enterprises are being fostered generally in the state. Several hundred co-operative shipping associations have grown up in recent years, which are now receiving counsel and aid from the state department.

The state co-operative association law was completely remodeled by the last session of the legislature to provide for the growth and supervision of farmers' marketing enterprises. It is under this law that the tobacco growers have formed their organiza-

OLD CASTLE IS UP FOR SALE

LONDON, July 27.—Tantallon Castle in North Herwick, for centuries the stronghold of the Douglasses, is to be sold this summer.
In Sir Walter Scott's "Marion"
the battlements of the tantallon are the meeting place for Clare and her lover.

Around its walls many fierce battles have been fought. At one time the castle was besieged by King James V., who failed to make a breach in its garrison. Later it was the scene of on-slaughts by Cromwell and the Cov-enanters.

IT IS OUR DESIRE

To pursue a progressive policy and to give Danville a reliable, dependable and adequate Street Car Service, one of which we and every other citizen of Danville may be proud.

We can not do that on a deficit such as is now in prospect for us.

We ask the people of Danville to stand behind (not in front of) us and to help us to be the kind of Street Car Company they want Danville to have.

REGULARS PUSH FIGHT IN SOUTH

DUBLIN, July 27.—(Associated Press)—The Free State troops, pushing their campaign in the South, have advanced into a region where almost every road has been rendered impassable. They now face innumerable concealed mines, which have been laid for the purpose of encompassing their destruction. Hence, they are moving warily.
Fighting is in progress, and the national troops are meeting with strong opposition, though the exact location of the fighting is not known here. The nationalists are reported to be attacking the regulars from three sides, bombarding their positions with light field pieces and machine guns. Both troops and civilians are displaying heroism, the civilians assisting in bringing in the dead and wounded under intense fire.
The fact that the meeting of Parliament has only been postponed until August 12, is held to indicate that the government is hopeful of an early termination of the hostilities.

COTTON BILL TURNED DOWN

WASHINGTON, July 27.—The bill of Senator Dial, Democrat, South Carolina, to amend the Smith-Lever act by increasing the number of grades of cotton deliverable on future contracts was reported unfavorably today by the Senate agriculture committee. Senator Dial recently introduced the bill and also offered it as an amendment to the pending tariff bill.

VIENNA TEACHERS UNDERGO HARSHSHIP

VIENNA, July 27.—Only 25 candidates will be admitted to the normal schools in Vienna in the next school year. This drastic order has been issued by the Austrian Ministry of Education because the whole country, and especially Vienna, is burdened with a superfluity of public school teachers.

In Vienna at the present time there are 250 women teachers without posts, and 17000 probationers, half of whom are women, all unemployed. In addition, there are some 1200 students in the normal schools who will graduate during the next two or three years, with very little hope of employment.

An official communication issued by the Ministry points out that the situation of the public school teachers in Vienna is likely to become worse rather than better. There are fewer children than formerly, and in consequence, fewer classes, whilst some school buildings have been closed altogether. For some years past, the normal schools have been turning out more graduates than there were vacant positions for, and the condition of affairs has now reached a point when some serious steps must be taken to prevent their overcrowding of the teaching profession.

Seeing how badly teachers are paid in Austria at the present time, it is somewhat remarkable that the government should have taken this course against taking up this work. From university professors to probationary teachers in the lowest grades, all are undergoing the great privations of the present time of dear living. An American in Vienna who advertised recently for lessons in German received hundreds of replies, some from professors in the university and high schools who offered an hour's tuition for 500 crowns, now less than three cents. As the ordinary scale for such lessons is 2,000 crowns, it is plain that these professors must be in sore straits.

Many Give Blood To Save Soldiers

WASHINGTON, July 27.—Walter Reed General Hospital here, which has so many wounded veterans of the health, and at which there are still many patients boast of the strangest roster in the world, army service. It is a list of men, hospital attendants, who are not only willing, but anxious to give of their blood to those of their comrades who can be cured only by having injected in their veins the healthy red blood of a strong man.

There is a long list of these men, usually not less than 50, who have signified their willingness to give a pint or more of their rich blood to strengthen weakening soldier patients and hardly a day passes, doctors say, but what there is a call for a transfusion.

When the physicians decide an ailing patient is in need of new blood, a specimen of his is tested to determine which of the four classes of human blood he possesses. The test is then compared with those of the listed men, who have been previously examined, to find one that "matches" the patient. There are usually a number of each type on the list and the transfusion is quickly accomplished.

The men who volunteer for the charity are chosen among the clerks, ambulance drivers, special police, and others on active duty at the hospital. Of the five hundred men there, it is said, more than half have given blood.

Although elsewhere there is always a high premium paid to the donor of blood for transfusion, these men ask for no payment, their only reward is a ten days leave to recuperate, for the operation, especially if more than a pint is given, is very weakening on the system. For that reason only the strongest and healthiest men are picked.

No man is permitted to give his blood twice within two months, but as often as there are calls for the service, there are always plenty of volunteers to keep the list full.

TWO ARE HELD FOR KILLING

MEMPHIS, Tenn., July 27.—William Bates and Horst Brown, a negro, both striking shotmen, are held by police here on murder charges in connection with the deaths of Walter Willis and Elbert Wade, negro car repairmen for the Illinois Central railroad, who were shot while leaving the shops early today. Bates is held on the strength of a signed statement which police say Willis made a short time before his death, and in which it is alleged, he claimed he was shot by Bates. Bates denies having been in the neighborhood of the shops when the two negroes were shot by a crowd of men in an automobile. Other arrests in the case are expected, police declare.

NEW SOUTH WALES ORCHESTRA DISBANDED

SYDNEY, N. S. W., July 27.—Announcement of the impending dissolution of the state orchestra has thrown the New South Wales musical world into consternation. The government has given the musicians 3 months notice following the announcement that the deficit last year amounted to approximately $50,000 and that the annual expenses were more than $100,000. The pleas of music lovers to the government asking a reconsideration of the decision to abolish the orchestra have been unavailing thus far.
